The Bartech Group Makes Executive Appointments to Drive Growth and Innovation

June 20, 2008, LIVONIA — The Bartech Group appointed William Sebra to the newly created position of Vice President of Recruitment Process Outsourcing (RPO) Solutions, and Jennifer Spicher to the newly created position of Vice President of Direct and Contract Recruitment. Mr. Sebra and Ms. Spicher are responsible for growing these service lines, contributing significantly to the expected acceleration in revenue growth for the Company.

William Sebra has held positions of president, founder, and ceo for several companies in the recruitment industry for the past 20 years. He has an accomplished background as a successful entrepreneur, specifically in the recruitment outsourcing sector. He was one of the early adopters of the RPO concept, founding a company called Knowledge Workers, Inc. in 1993. As a pioneer in the RPO space, Mr. Sebra built the company to over 200 employees. He eventually sold Knowledge Workers to another human capital firm. Early in his career, he worked for the Intelligence Community and had a distinguished career in the United States Air Force.

Jennifer Spicher joined The Bartech Group to help accelerate the Company's growth in direct and contract placements. She brings a wealth of experience and demonstrated accomplishments in the staffing industry. Most recently she served as Market Director at a national staffing and recruitment firm and was responsible for the operations of its southeast Michigan region. Her expertise is Information Technology (IT) and Finance/Accounting staffing services. Ms. Spicher is experienced in establishing recruiting process and strategy, as well as compensation and incentive programs. She has also served in the positions of Regional Recruiting Manager, Senior IT Staffing Professional, and Sales Coordinator.

"I am extremely pleased that we were able to acquire such impressive talent, and that William and Jennifer have decided to continue their careers at The Bartech Group. We are excited about the vast amount of experience and knowledge that these professionals bring to the Company. I expect them to make immediate contributions and deliver superior results," said Jon E. Barfield, Chairman and President of The Bartech Group.
