The Bartech Group Wins Chrysler LLC Minority Supplier of the Year Award

August 5, 2008, LIVONIA — The Bartech Group was selected to receive the highly coveted Chrysler Minority Supplier of the Year Award. The award recognizes suppliers for superior performance based on the quality awards and recognition received by customers, demonstrated commitment to supplier and employee diversity, and its corporate citizenship activities. The Bartech Group is a staffing and management services company that bills and manages $1 billion in staffing and workforce management expenditures on behalf of its customers.

"It was an honor to recognize The Bartech Group as Chrysler's 2008 MBE (Minority Business Enterprise) of the Year," said Jethro Joseph, Senior Executive - Diversity Supplier Development for Chrysler LLC. "Chrysler needs suppliers like The Bartech Group who can not only respond to the need of their customers, but strives to exceed them as well. "

Bartech Group's Chairman and President, Jon E. Barfield, said, "Bartech and Chrysler have a very strong partnership based on mutual respect and a commitment to achieving win-win results. We are very grateful for this relationship and look forward to many more years of delivering superior performance to Chrysler. We are continuously broadening our capacity to add value to Chrysler as well as all of our customers."
