The Bartech Group Wins the Eaton Corporation Premier Supplier Award

May 16, 2008, LIVONIA — The Bartech Group was selected to receive the Eaton Corporation Premier Supplier Award for the third consecutive year. Diversified industrial manufacturer Eaton Corporation honored 42 of its best suppliers at its third Supplier Awards Program in April in Cleveland, Ohio. The Bartech Group is a talent acquisition and management services company that bills and manages $1 billion in revenue on behalf of its customers. Last year, Bartech also won the Eaton Corporation PEAK Award.

Richard D. Holder, Vice President, Eaton Business System, said, "Of the thousands of Eaton suppliers around the world these are the best in terms of quality, productivity, innovation and technology."

Bartech Group's Chairman and President, Jon E. Barfield, said, "We are honored to receive this award from Eaton Corporation again. We appreciate the relationship that we have with Eaton and look forward to continuing to provide superior quality and service to our partner. The scope of our activities at Bartech surrounding our talent acquisition and management solutions in professional staffing support, contingent workforce management, and business consulting services broadens our capacity to add value to Eaton over the years to come."

Bartech has established a phenomenal track record for exceeding customer expectations as evidenced by customer awards and recognition. The Company received the General Motors Corporation's highly coveted Supplier of the Year Award for the past two years, the 2008 National Minority Supplier Development Council Leadership Award, and the 2007 Chrysler Minority Business Enterprise of the Year, among many others.
